Alliance Building Services wins contract at 400 Atlantic St., Stamford

January 03, 2008 - Connecticut

First Quality Maintenance and Classic Security, divisions of Alliance Building Services recently received exclusive contracts to provide cleaning and security services at 400 Atlantic St.

The 500,000 s/f Class A commercial office building located in the hub of downtown Stamford is owned by The Landis Group.

Amenities of the building include access to I-95, Metro North and Amtrak Railroad stations, as well as the upscale Town Center Mall; new cafeteria and fitness center; lobby with concierge and security system as well as an eight level parking garage.

Leasing primarily to large tenants, such notable occupants of 400 Atlantic include International Paper, American Express, UBS, Abbey National, and Wiggin & Dana.

"We are delighted that The Landis Group has decided to make us a part of their team," said Gary Green, CEO of Alliance Building Service. "This is an incredible building in Connecticut's downtown commercial district and we look forward to bringing our years of experience in cleaning and security services to the property."

"Alliance Building Services has a consistent record of success in the building services industry and therefore we are excited to welcome ABS to 400 Atlantic St.," said Scott Landis, principal of The Landis Group.
