Mike Gorman and Tom York form Goman+York Property Advisors

June 02, 2011 - Connecticut

With close to 50 years of commercial real estate experience between them, Mike Goman and Tom York have formed Goman+York Property Advisors to give clients something they rarely have ever had - the close attention of a staff dedicated to achieve their goals.

"Most commercial real estate companies claim they provide dedicated service, but in reality they have too many clients to provide anything but adequate services," said Goman. "At Goman+York, we provide a few clients with a lot of attention instead of a lot of clients with a little attention. We understand that focus brings performance, and performance brings improved results. At Goman+York, we expect nothing less."

York agreed, noting, "We are not simply in the business of constantly adding new clients. Instead, we develop a specific plan for each client and then focus tirelessly on executing that plan."
