Business Best - Robinson & Cole

June 02, 2011 - Connecticut

When organizations are looking for counsel for their important business affairs and litigation, they turn to Robinson & Cole, an AmLaw 200 firm serving regional, national, and international clients. Our 225 attorneys are located in nine offices throughout the Northeast and Florida. Through an understanding of your industry, the nature and structure of your business, your level of risk tolerance, and your budget considerations, we tailor our legal strategy to align with the overall business needs of your company. Every Robinson & Cole partner receives legal project management training. This methodology allows our partners to clearly define the scope of a matter, enhance client communication, avoid inefficiencies, and provide clients with a greater degree of certainty about their legal costs.
