Inscape Corp. appoints Peabody Office Furniture to its premier dealer network

June 16, 2011 - Front Section

Inscape Corporation, a leading designer, manufacturer and distributor of workplace furniture solutions, has appointed Peabody Office Furniture to its premier dealer network. Peabody will represent Inscape's complete line of products, including filing and storage, systems furniture, casegoods and architectural products.

An established and respected full service dealership in New England, Peabody provides a complete range of services including project management, design, technology support, rental and asset management.

"We are delighted to add Peabody to our growing network of dealers. They have earned an excellent reputation providing progressive solutions to their clients," said Craig Dunlop, COO. "Their experience and service model will allow us to better serve the greater Boston area and further strengthen our dealer network."

"We are very pleased to be now working with Inscape. The investments they are making to develop their brand along with their commitment to excellence in design and service makes this partnership an excellent fit. We are excited to offer their integrated product solutions to our clients," said Christopher Peabody, CEO, Peabody Office Furniture.

About Peabody

Peabody is one of New England's oldest office furniture dealers in Massachusetts and has a long line of success extending over 109 years. Today, Peabody remains a family-owned and operated organization, and it continues to provide the area's business community with progressive office solutions and services. A full service contract office furniture dealership, Peabody has a dedicated sales and service team to implement responsive workspace solutions.
