Best Business - Todreas Hanley Associates

June 23, 2011 - Retail

Todreas Hanley Associates (THA) is an urban retail real estate consulting and brokerage firm with considerable experience in developing reality-based revitalization strategies for properties in downtowns and neighborhood commercial districts. Revitalization of public places, mixed-use development and the re-use of historic structures are our special expertise. The associates use their market knowledge to assist developers, architects, and municipalities design optimal business conditions so that properties, streets, or centers will attract the desired tenants and their customers. THA is in the forefront of creativity and innovation in retail development, while maximizing returns for investors. THA works to transform outdated districts, town centers, and shopping centers into thriving and productive real estate.
