

nerej

Toll Brothers wins two awards from the Greater Boston Home Tour

June 30, 2011 - Owners Developers & Managers

Toll Brothers had the honor of taking home two awards from the Greater Boston Home Tour opening night event held on June 2nd. The Bayhill Savannah Model Home, at Toll Brothers at the Pinehills, won Best in Show and Best Master Suite.

"We're very excited about being honored with these prestigious awards," said Greg Kamedulski, division president. "Like all Toll Brothers communities, Toll Brothers at the Pinehills is a shining example of the quality, style, and value we build into every home; and it's absolutely thrilling when the company's commitment to excellence is recognized," he said.

"The Bayhill model was the only home to win multiple awards this year," said Bryan O'Sullivan, project manager. "This is a spacious home design with a spectacular first-floor master suite for those with active lifestyles."

Toll Brothers has three model homes participating in the Greater Boston Home Tour; the Bayhill Savannah at Toll Brothers at the Pinehills, the Farmington Manor at Regency at Methuen, and the Arlington Colonial at The Estates at Walpole. There are a total of 23 homes from around the state and they are automatically entered to win up to 11 awards. The Home Tour was held for two weekends, June 3rd - 5th and June 10th - 12th. Also, during the tour visitors have the opportunity to vote on their favorite home for the People's Choice, awarded to the winning builder at the end of the Home Tour.

Toll Brothers at the Pinehills, showcases single-family homes in a well-established golf community with resort-style amenities priced from the low $400,000s. The Bayhill model home and sales center are open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Additional Massachusetts luxury home communities include; The Estates at Walpole, in Norfolk County, boasts single-family home designs priced from the low $600s. North Grafton Preserve, in Worcester County, boasts single-family home designs priced from the low $500s. Regency at Assabet Ridge, in Middlesex County, offers townhomes for the active-adult with planned on-site amenities, priced from the low $300,000s. Regency at Methuen, in Essex County, offers townhomes and single-family homes for buyers 55+ priced from the low $300,000s. Toll Brothers decorated model homes and sales centers are open daily from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Toll Brothers, Inc. is the nation's leading builder of luxury homes. The Company began business in 1967 and became a public company in 1986. Its common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "TOL." The Company serves move-up, empty-nester, active-adult, and second-home buyers and operates nationwide.

Toll Brothers builds luxury single-family detached and attached home communities; master planned luxury residential, resort-style golf communities; and urban low-, mid-, and high-rise communities, principally on land it develops and improves. The Company operates its own architectural, engineering, mortgage, title, land development and land sale, golf course development and management, home security, and landscape subsidiaries. The Company also operates its own lumber distribution, and house component assembly and manufacturing operations.

Toll Brothers was ranked #1 in 2011 and 2010 in Financial Soundness, Long-Term Investment, and Quality of Products/Services in FORTUNE magazine's annual World's Most Admired Companies survey in the home building category. The Company is also honored to have won the three most coveted awards in the home building industry: America's Best Builder, the National Housing Quality Award, and National Builder of the Year. Toll Brothers proudly supports the communities in which it builds; among other philanthropic pursuits, the Company sponsors the Toll Brothers - Metropolitan Opera International Radio Network, bringing opera to neighborhoods throughout the world. For more information, visit TollBrothers.com.

This is not an offering where prohibited by law.

New England Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540