Jewett Construction completes renovations to Peabody Museum

July 21, 2011 - Front Section

Jewett Construction Co., Inc. recently completed renovations to the historic Peabody Museum at Phillips Andover Academy. Work performed included a new wheelchair-accessible restroom, structural walls for a new set of stairs, concrete sidewalks, and new asphalt pavement. Additional upgrades were also made to the electrical and heating systems.

The project is one of many Jewett has done for Phillips Academy Andover. Other recent work includes historical renovations to Samuel Phillips Hall, as well as the Newman House and Stevens House dormitory buildings. Jewett's other historically significant restoration/renovation projects include the Credit Union Museum in Manchester, and several such jobs in Portsmouth including the 1827 Sheafe House and the Gaslight Restaurant.

Jewett Construction is a Raymond, NH-based design-build / construction management firm specializing in commercial and industrial projects throughout the Northeast.
