Richards Barry Joyce & Partners, LLC promotes Roberts and Cordeiro to vice president

August 04, 2011 - Front Section

Richards Barry Joyce & Partners, LLC (RBJ&P) has promoted Mark Roberts and Dan Cordeiro to vice president. The two jointly direct the marketing efforts of the firm.

"Mark and Dan have earned this recognition through their hard work in supporting RBJ&P's marketing activities as well as those of our wide range of tenant and landlord clients," said Bob Richards, president, RBJ&P. "Mark's tenure at RBJ&P goes back almost to the firm's founding ten years ago. His combination of creative skills, design expertise and in-depth commercial real estate experience make him an integral team member. Dan brings a high level of graphics and web design capabilities to each of his client projects. Additionally, he has an in-depth knowledge of technology trends and techniques that make him a key contributor to our success."

Before joining RBJ&P in 2001, Roberts was head of market research at Cushman & Wakefield. Prior to entering the real estate field Roberts worked at Harvard Medical Publications, where he assisted the editor-in-chief with all aspects of editing copy for publication. Roberts graduated from University of Massachusetts in Boston with a B.A. in Greek & Latin. He also studied at the Intercollegiate Center for Classical Studies in Rome, Italy.

Cordeiro joined RBJ&P in 2005 from Directory M in Cambridge, where he designed web banner advertisements, directory graphics and media kits for various online entities, including Forbes and BusinessWeek. Prior to working at Directory M, Cordeiro honed his creative skills working with The Laidlaw Group and The Lyons Group, where he assisted in creating a wide range of print and multimedia designs. Cordeiro graduated from Massachusetts College of Art with a B.F.A. in graphic design.
