McKinnon of The Grossman Companies, Inc. brokers 1,721 s/f lease to The New England Mechanical Contractors Association

August 04, 2011 - Front Section

The New England Mechanical Contractors Association (NEMCA) has leased space for its offices at 1266 Furnace Brook Parkway (The Willard Building). The organization leased 1,721 s/f. It represents commercial and industrial heating, ventilation, air conditioning, and process piping contractors in Massachusetts, Maine and Rhode Island, relocated from Hingham.

Richard McKinnon, director of brokerage services for The Grossman Companies, Inc., handled negotiations for the lease.

The Willard Building is home to a variety of professional services firms including law and CPA firms, financial advisors, and real estate management and development companies, among others.

General contractors, developers, architects, owners, engineers, consultants, and manufacturers: For more than 100 years, the New England MCA has supported its contractors by providing resources such as workshops, seminars, conferences, government relations, labor relations, and marketing campaigns.

The Grossman Companies, Inc., offers a full range of brokerage services, with a focus on sales and leasing of commercial property throughout New England.
