Jones Lang LaSalle agent for UnitedHealthcare Center

August 18, 2011 - Connecticut

Jones Lang LaSalle's Capital Markets group has been hired by the long-term owner to sell the UnitedHealthcare Center. The 884,669 s/f 39-story Class A tower, the tallest building in Connecticut and only office tower in Hartford greater than 30 floors, is 98% leased and occupied. Leading the Jones Lang LaSalle team are managing directors Michael Smith and Scott Jamieson. Managing director Kelly Gaines and senior vice president Dustin Stolly will provide financing expertise, while executive vice president Chris Ostop will provide local market brokerage expertise.
