Ardente joins Residential Properties Ltd. as sales associate

September 08, 2011 - Rhode Island

Christina McCulloch Ardente has joined Residential Properties Ltd. as a full-time sales associate.

McCulloch Ardente is a member of the National Association of Realtors, the Rhode Island Association of Realtors, and the Greater Providence Board of Realtors. She serves, and has been a board member/committee chairman for several local organizations. These institutions include the Barrington Early Childhood Center, Nayatt School, Gordon School, St. Andrew's School, The Wheeler School, Junior League of RI, and the Providence Children's Museum.

"Christina maintains excellent relationships with professionals in the East Bay real estate industry" said Ian Barnacle, co-manager of the Barrington office.

"This attribute, combined with a strong investment in the community, allows her to smoothly navigate for her clients the often daunting real estate process. What makes Christina stand out as a realtor is her professionalism, knowledge, patience, and attention to detail. These qualities make transactions more efficient for all parties involved, and encourage desirable results for clients."
