Mack-Cali Realty Corporation receives TOBY award for Stamford Executive Park

January 16, 2008 - Connecticut

According to Mack-Cali Realty Corporation, its Stamford Executive Park has received The Office Building of the Year (TOBY) Award from the Southern Connecticut Chapter of the Building Owners and Managers Association.

The award, which was presented recently at the BOMA Chapter's Annual TOBY Awards Gala, was received in the industrial park category. The TOBY award is based on excellence in office building management, with all facets of a property's operations evaluated including building maintenance, operational efficiency, tenant retention, emergency preparedness, and community impact.

William Rifkin, director of property management, who accepted the award on behalf of Mack-Cali, commented, "This award is an excellent demonstration of Mack-Cali's commitment to provide tenants with the superior work environments they need to prosper."

Stamford Executive Park consists of five office/flex buildings totaling 273,000 s/f. The park is 98.4% leased.

Mack-Cali Realty Corporation is a fully-integrated, self-administered, self-managed real estate investment trust (REIT) providing management, leasing, development, construction and other tenant-related services for its Class A real estate portfolio.
