N. Bdwy. Crossing welcomes three new tenants; MEG is leasing agent

January 23, 2008 - Retail

A new upscale shopping center on Rte. 28 had three new businesses open recently.

North Broadway Crossing, one of the area's newest shopping centers, features four unique buildings and a wide assortment of tenants. The shopping center is located at a new signalized intersection on Rte. 28, just north of Rockingham Rd. Chris Capozzoli, who also built nearby Burlington Self Storage, developed the property. Andrew Levy, director of brokerage services for the MEG Companies, is the property's executive leasing agent.

The center is anchored by McKinnon's Market & Super Butcher. The store consists of 26,000 s/f of custom designed space. McKinnon's features meat, seafood, produce, bakery items, wine and cheese, and prepared foods.

Also in the Crossing is Pentucket Bank, which has opened in a separate, stand-alone, two-story brick facility with multiple drive-through lanes. The second floor offers a community room for functions that can be used for various events. Adjacent to the bank is a new Irving Oil Blue Canoe Convenience Store with a Quizno's inside, and a covered canopy with eight gas pumps.

Stores that have opened in the front retail building include Act One Beauty Lounge, a hair salon; Elizabeth Grady Skin Care Salon, which offers body treatments, skin care, nails, and make-up; Maddie's Bagel & Eatery offer a breakfast menu and sandwiches, salads, wraps, and other light fare for lunch; and Fitness Together, a personal trainer service. Three new tenants are: Audrey's Sew & Vac will offer vacuum cleaners, sewing machines, accessories, fabric, and sewing classes; Jeanie's Dry Cleaners; and Coco's Fashion Jewelry & Accessories which carries fashion jewelry made from sterling silver, cubic zirconium, rhodium plating and other costume jewelry material, as well as designer and fashion handbags.
