Dieker of CB Richard Ellis/New England brokers 11,549 s/f lease for Clark & Lavey Benefits Solutions, Inc.

September 29, 2011 - Front Section

According to CB Richard Ellis/New England (CBRE/NE), Clark & Lavey Benefits Solutions, Inc., a group benefits insurance broker, has signed a long-term lease at 7 Henry Clay Dr. The firm will occupy 11,549 s/f of class A office space.

CBRE/NE's Roger Dieker, vice president at the firm's Manchester office, represented the tenant in the deal. Landlord Adamian Construction & Development Corp. was represented by CBRE/NE associate Mike Tamposi.

"Clark & Lavey was very strategic in their analysis," said Dieker. "The company was successful in securing superior space for an extended term at today's reduced rates."

"Clark & Lavey's presence will enhance the image of 7 Henry Clay Dr. and provide a solid foundation as we reposition this multi-tenant facility," said Tamposi.

7 Henry Clay Dr. is a 45,620 s/f office building that offers all the amenities of a first-class corporate campus. It is located off exit 10 of the F.E. Everett Tpke.

"Our growth plan, combined with today's tenant-friendly market environment, offered us the opportunity to obtain a larger space that will be tailored to our needs," said Laura Bennett, chief financial officer for Clark & Lavey.

"We are pleased to welcome Clark & Lavey as a new tenant to the building," said Heather Adamian of Adamian Construction. "We look forward to establishing a long-term relationship with them."
