Berger and Galvani of Parsons Commercial Group, Inc. handle two leases for KS Partners

October 27, 2011 - Front Section

The listing team of Alex Berger and Victor Galvani of Parsons Commercial Group, Inc., (PCG) recently completed two office lease deals at Jefferson Office Park - 790 and 800 Turnpike St. The team represents KS Partners, the owner of the office park.

Joining Jefferson Office Park is Seven Hills Foundation, a non-profit organization whose mission is to promote, encourage and empower people with challenges. "This is an added location," said Berger. "They have a location just a few miles away, but needed just a bit more square footage. We were able to accommodate their needs due to the flexibility in size ranges that we have available at the park." The organization leased just over 2,000 sq/f at 790 Turnpike Street.

Also joining Jefferson Office Park is Prometric, a leading provider of comprehensive testing and assessment services. The company leased 2,400 s/f at 800 Turnpike St. "This will be a new testing center," said Berger.

Berger and Galvani exclusively represent 790 and 800 Turnpike St. at Jefferson Office Park.

The park offers direct access to Rte. 125 and is in close proximity to Rtes. 93, 95 and 495. The park features classic brick 3-story elevator buildings, landscaped grounds and renovated common areas. There are several hotels in the immediate area including Courtyard Boston, Wyndham Boston Andover, Holiday Inn, Andover Inn, and Comfort Suites.
