Crosby appointed manager of Boston Privates Prudential office

November 10, 2011 - Financial Digest

According to Boston Private Bank & Trust Company, Francis Crosby, senior vice president, has been appointed manager for the bank's new office in the Prudential Center. Previously, Crosby managed the bank's Back Bay office since its opening in 2000. From this new location, Crosby will continue to develop highly personalized relationships with clients in the Back Bay, while providing them with exceptional service for their personal and business banking.

"Frank was instrumental in the success of our 500 Boylston St. office, growing deposits to $270 million." said George Schwartz, EVP, chief operating officer and treasurer, Boston Private Bank & Trust Co. "I'm confident that under his leadership and strong client allegiance, Frank and his team will mirror that success and enable us to continue to grow in the Back Bay."

Crosby is a seasoned banking professional with more than 41 years of experience. He is very active in the Back Bay community and currently serves as treasurer for the board of directors for Friends of Copley Square and is a member of the Back Bay Business Association, the Neighborhood Association of the Back Bay, and the Newbury Street League. He also serves as chairman of the finance committee for Marian Manor in South Boston.

The new Prudential Center office offers deposit and cash management, commercial lending, residential mortgage and investment management & trust services. In addition, the new location has 24/7 ATM account access, and is open Monday-Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., with extended hours on Wednesday and Thursday.
