Malmberg of Hallkeen, Hayes of Hallkeen, Espinal of R.I. Housing and Soriano of First Realty Management earn IREM's Accredited Residential Manager certification

November 10, 2011 - Rhode Island

The following have earned the Accredited Residential Manager (ARM) certification from the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM), an affiliate of the National Association of Realtors. The ARM certification is awarded to managers of residential real estate properties who have met the Institute's rigorous requirements in the areas of professional education, examination and experience.

Congratulations to: Michelle Malmberg and Betsy Hayes from Hallkeen Management, Nataly Espinal from Rhode Island Housing and Carmen Soriano from First Realty Management

The Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) is an international community of real estate managers across all property types dedicated to ethical business practices and maximizing the value of investment real estate. An affiliate of the National Association of Realtors, IREM has been a trusted source for knowledge, advocacy and networking for the real estate management community for more than 77 years.
