Larson to be chair of Chamber of Commerce

January 23, 2008 - Front Section

The Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce said that Bentley College president Gloria Larson is the new elected chair of the organization.

"Through her many years of service in the public and private sectors, Gloria has earned a reputation as a dedicated and bi-partisan leader," Chamber officials said in a memo to the Chamber board.

Larson was elected to the presidency of Bentley College in July of 2007 after serving as co-chair of the Government Strategies Group at Foley Hoag.

Larson's two-year term will begin on May 14th.
