Boston Realty Advisors retained to sell 16-unit apartment portfolio in Beacon Hill

November 23, 2011 - Front Section

Boston Realty Advisors (BRA) has been retained to sell a 16 unit apartment portfolio in the city's Beacon Hill. The investment offering includes two buildings located at 24 Joy St. and 88 West Cedar St.

The multifamily team of Christopher Sower and Jason Weissman of BRA will be handling the sale. Both buildings have received many recent renovations, including kitchens, bathrooms and common areas. The portfolio is located close to Massachusetts General Hospital, Faneuil Hall, the Financial District, Suffolk University, and the State House.

Sower, managing director and partner of BRA said, "This is a very unique opportunity to purchase two extremely well maintained assets in a one-of-kind location."

Weissman, principal and founder of BRA said, "It is rare to be able to purchase a sizable amount of units in Beacon Hill in one transaction."

Boston Realty Advisors is currently marketing multiple assets for sale in Boston's Back Bay, including 225 & 227 Newbury Street.
