Haworth Inc. adds LaVangie as senior business development manager

January 31, 2008 - Owners Developers & Managers

Haworth, Inc., one of the world's largest manufacturers and designers of workspaces and office furniture, has hired Ryan LaVangie at its Boston office as senior business development manager.

Reporting to business development director Gary Warren, LaVangie will be responsible for new business development in Boston and its suburbs. He will work closely with local dealers such as Environments at Work.

In addition to a B.B.A. from the University of Mass. at Amherst, Ryan has also completed coursework through Dale Carnegie and the Sandler Sales Institute.
