The 13th annual New England Facilities Expo returns to Boston, March 19th - 20th

January 31, 2008 - Owners Developers & Managers

Cygnus Expositions, the tradeshow division of business-to-business media leader Cygnus Business Media, is presenting New England Facilities Expo at Seaport World Trade Center, March 19th and 20th.

New England Facilities Expo features a packed exhibit hall showcasing the latest products and services, as well as a comprehensive educational program covering cutting-edge topics and offering solutions to the business challenges faced by building professionals. The New England Facilities Expo connects exhibitors with high-quality decision-makers working in operations, engineering and facility management positions.

New this year is an emphasis on green solutions. Facilities Expo provides attendee education on energy best practices, including green technologies, government/utility incentives, smart energy purchasing and high-ROI energy-saving products and services.

The Expo offers 17 free educational sessions with timely topics such as New Energy Efficiency Programs and Services: a Panel Discussion and Can Renewable Energy Make Sense for Your Facility? Educational sessions are led by industry experts and are free to any registered attendee (see schedule for details).

The New England Facilities Expo is supported by nationally recognized professional organizations, including: AFE and the NEEC. The show is also sponsored by High-Profile Monthly and Hometown Forecast Services. National publication sponsors include: Plant Services, American School & Hospital Facility, FacilityCare, Electrical Contracting Products, Facility Campus Maintenance, and Security Technology and Design.

Show hours on Wednesday, March 19th are 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. Show hours on Thursday, March 20th are 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. Admission is FREE!
