Homewood Suites by Hilton opens 98-unit property in Canton, Massachusetts

January 19, 2012 - Front Section

Homewood Suites by Hilton, the international brand of all-suite, residential-style hotels, has opened its newest property at 50 Royall St. The four-story, 98-suite hotel is owned by Benderson Development Company, Inc. and managed by Buffalo Lodging. General manager Bill Hines has been in the hotel industry for 28 years.

"While designed for extended-stay guests, our spacious suites are perfect for both business and leisure travelers," said Hines. "Homewood's standard amenities include fully-equipped kitchens with full-sized refrigerators, complimentary high-speed Internet access, and separate living and sleeping areas in each of our suites."

Homewood Suites by Hilton Boston/Canton offers studio, one- and two-bedroom suites, with additional guest amenities including a daily complimentary full hot breakfast in the hotel's hospitality center, the "Lodge," a full evening meal with drinks Monday-Thursday evenings, and a 24-hour on-site pantry called the Suite Shop. The hotel also offers a fully-equipped fitness center, indoor pool with hot tub, 24-hour executive business center, nearby recreational activities, and a board meeting room.

Located at 50 Royall St., the hotel is conveniently situated near Boston and just 19 miles from Logan International Airport (BOS). The property is within minutes from the Gillette Stadium, the Comcast Center, Legacy Place shopping, historical sites, entertainment, sports venues as well as a vast variety of restaurants. Major nearby corporate offices include Reebok, Dunkin Donuts, McDonald's, Boston Mutual Life Insurance and Bank of Boston.
