Colliers International enters correspondent agreement with Redwood

January 19, 2012 - Front Section

Colliers International's Capital Markets group has entered into a correspondent agreement with Redwood Commercial Mortgage Corp.

"We are excited about the correspondent agreement with Redwood," said executive vice president David Douvadjian of Colliers. "Redwood provides reasonably-priced, long-term mezzanine debt and preferred equity to go behind bank agency and life company first mortgages. With Redwood, we will build a capital stack to compete against leveraged conduit options while providing superior reliability, certainty and servicing."
