New England Construction breaks ground for Saccuci Honda dealership in Middletown

February 09, 2012 - Rhode Island

New England Construction broke ground on a renovation project for Saccucci Honda dealership located at 1350 West Main Rd.

The project will consist of demolition of the existing showroom, construction of a new showroom, construction of a new service drive, renovation and addition to the service area, as well as an addition and renovation to the parts storage area. The showroom will also contain a mezzanine with executive offices and conference space. The project consists of 33,853 s/f of which 19,325 s/f is new and 14,528 s/f is renovated space.

As the design-builder, New England Const. provided design, budgeting, permitting, and construction services. To provide the architectural services, NECC partnered with Regent Associates.

Saccucci Honda will be built according to the new "Generation 3" Honda Prototype. This Dealership will be the first of its kind in New England.
