

CELEBRATING
55 YEARS

nerej

Reese of Reese Commercial Real Estate Services earns CPM designation

February 16, 2012 - Connecticut

Dale Reese, CPM, CCIM, RPA, principal of Reese Commercial Real Estate Services, has earned the Certified Property Manager (CPM) designation from the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM), an affiliate of the National Association of Realtors. The CPM designation is awarded to real estate managers who have met the Institute's rigorous requirements in the areas of professional education, examination and experience. CPM Members must also abide by a rigorous Code of Professional Ethics that is strictly enforced by the Institute. The designation was awarded at the Association's December business meeting in Cromwell.

Reese has over 24 years of experience in asset and property management operations and commercial brokerage for all product types. Reese has worked at Hines, CBRE, and New Boston Fund, where he managed over seven million s/f with an aggregate value totaling nearly $700 million including four office towers: One State St., 280 Trumbull St. and 100 Pearl St. in Hartford and 545 Long Wharf Dr. in New Haven.

Reese Commercial Real Estate is a full service company headquartered in Rocky Hill. Reese Commercial offers property management expertise for office, industrial and retail buildings over 10,000 s/f and leasing and sales representing tenants, landlords and investors. Other services include consultation, bank appointed receiverships, investment analysis and acquisition and disposition due diligence. For more information email dreese@reese.com.

The Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) has been the source for education, resources, information and membership for real estate management professionals for more than 75 years. An affiliate of the National Association of Realtors, IREM is the only professional real estate management association serving both the multifamily and commercial real estate sectors. With 80 U.S. chapters, 12 international chapters and several other partnerships around the globe, IREM is an international organization that also serves as an advocate on issues affecting the real estate management industry.

Membership includes more than 18,000 individual members and 500 corporate members. IREM promotes ethical real estate management practices through its credentialed membership programs, including the Certified Property Manager (CPM) designation, the Accredited Residential Manager (ARM) certification, the Accredited Commercial Manager (ACOM) certification and the Accredited Management Organization (AMO) accreditation. These esteemed credentials certify competence and professionalism for those engaged in real estate management. In addition, IREM offers Associate, Student and Academic memberships.

Collectively, IREM CPM Members in the U.S. manage over $1.5 trillion in real estate assets, including 8.4 million residential units and 8.4 billion net s/f of commercial space. An additional 977,400 residential units are managed by IREM ARM Members. IREM Members are employed by some of the most prestigious real estate firms in the world and nearly 70% hold upper-level management positions. Due to their professionalism and vast experience, property owners and investors worldwide continually seek out the management services of IREM Members.

To learn more about the Institute of Real Estate Management and its chapter network visit www.irem.org.

New England Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540