McCann of Optimum Hotel Brokerage sells 67 room Motel 6 Augusta for Accor North America - $1.8 million

January 31, 2008 - Northern New England

Optimum Hotel Brokerage has closed on the $1.8 million sale of the Motel 6 Augusta. The 67-room hotel is located adjacent to I-95. Joe McCann, president of Philadelphia-based Optimum Hotel Brokerage represented the seller, Accor North America. The economy hotel was purchased by a New Jersey owner and operator, who will retain the property as a Motel 6 under franchise agreement with Accor.

"The Motel 6 Augusta's great location, quality construction, and Accor branding made the asset attractive to our extensive customer base of economy and select-service hotel buyers" said McCann. "The Motel 6 Augusta will give its new owner excellent opportunities to create value in this diverse, growth market. The hotel's Motel 6 branding was a valuable component of the deal."

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania-based Optimum Hotel Brokerage is a full service hotel brokerage firm. The firm's recent sales include the 115-room Westport Inn in Westport, Conn.; the 66-room Holiday Inn Express Plainfield in Plainfield, Conne.; 153-room Best Western Colonial Hotel in East Windsor, Conn.; the 1,639-room Palmer House Hilton in Chicago; the 75-unit Comfort Inn & Suites Brandywine Valley in West Chester, Penn.; the 153-room Days Inn Rochester Airport in Rochester, N.Y.; the 197-room Southbury Hilton in Southbury, Conn.; the 150-unit Best Western Lawton in Lawton, OK.; the 161-unit Holiday Inn Express Waterbury in Waterbury, Conn.; the 100-room Days Inn in Niantic, Conn., the 153-unit Days Hotel in Rochester, N.Y., the 304-room Crowne Plaza Meadowlands in Secaucus, N.J. and the 350-room Crowne Plaza Hartford in Hartford, Conn.
