North Branch Construction building renal therapy clinic for Fresenius

March 15, 2012 - Construction Design & Engineering

North Branch Construction has begun the interior fit-up of the Fresenius Medical Care Center. CWS Architects will provide architectural services for the project.

The finished clinic will feature dialysis equipment and accommodations for 12 patients.

Fresenius Medical Care is a renal therapy provider with kidney dialysis treatment clinics world-wide. They are also the largest provider of dialysis products and services in the U.S.
