Chace named Top Producing Agent by Kent Washington Association of Realtors for 2011

April 05, 2012 - Front Section

Judy Chace of Residential Properties Ltd. was recognized by the Kent Washington Association of Realtors as the #1 highest producing real estate agent for 2011 out of a field of over 1,350 member agents. In addition, Chace was the recipient of the coveted Platinum Plus award, which singles out real estate agents who, over the course of the year, attained a sales volume of more than $20 million.

"We are very proud of Judy's accomplishments," said Residential Properties CEO Sally Lapidés. "It takes dedication, determination and talent to deliver such exceptional results, especially in this challenging and highly competitive market. Judy's success is a direct result of her commitment, integrity and market knowledge and we are thrilled with her remarkable results."

Chace has been the recipient of this distinction many times over her 23-year career, which has contributed to her reputation as a leader in the Rhode Island luxury coastal market.

"I am delighted to have won this award for doing a job that I truly love," Chace said. "I look forward to continuing to help my clients reach their real estate goals."

Chace works in the Narragansett office of Residential Properties. Ltd.

Residential Properties has been serving sellers and buyers of distinctive properties since 1981 through service, innovation and sheer hard work. The company, with five offices located in Barrington, Cumberland, East Greenwich, Narragansett and Providence, services all of the state, Connecticut shoreline and southeastern and central Massachusetts. In addition, the relocation department assists buyers and sellers on transactions throughout the country.
