Stenger joins KW Commercial as agent

April 05, 2012 - Northern New England

Larry Stenger, a commercial real estate sales professional, has joined KW Commercial, a division of Keller Williams Realty's Bedford-Manchester market center.

Stenger previously worked for Jabil, a leader in the electronics manufacturing services industry. He held global responsibilities at Jabil for business development in the defense and aerospace sector.

"We are thrilled to have Larry join KW Commercial," says Bedford-Manchester team leader Mark Mulcahy. "Keller Williams Realty offers associates unparalleled career growth and lifelong learning opportunities in the real estate industry. With Larry's extensive business experience and the advantage of his holding both New Hampshire and Massachusetts real estate licenses, we are excited about the possibilities of expansion in our office."

"I chose Keller Williams because of its reputation for integrity and its agent-centric business model," said Stenger. "Additionally, working hand-in-glove with the residential agents to exchange referrals in our respective areas of expertise ensure our customers benefit from sector-specific knowledge and experience. I am anxious to contribute to the company's success on the commercial side."

"Our goal is to attract the very best in the commercial real estate industry to KW Commercial and clearly Larry meets this standard of excellence in the Southern New Hampshire and Northern Massachusetts marketplace." said Buddy Norman, president of KW Commercial. "At KW Commercial, we provide our associates with the training, technology, marketing tools, and resources to serve their clients at the highest level."
