North Branch recognized at American Institute of Architects NH awards

April 05, 2012 - Northern New England

North Branch Construction, Inc. was honored to be the only general contractor to take home two awards at this year's American Institute of Architects Excellence in Architecture Design Awards.

Architect Richard Monahan Jr. and North Branch received a merit award for the renovation of the Newbury Center Meeting House.

North Branch also received the 2012 People's Choice Award for Non-Residential Architecture for the Northeast Rehabilitation Hospital in Portsmouth along with Architect JSA, Inc.

The People's Choice Award was determined by an online poll open to the public to vote for their favorite project.
