USGBC-Rhode Island Chapter monthly webinar to be held on April 18

April 10, 2012 - Rhode Island

The USGBC-RI Chapter holds monthly educational seminars for LEED APs, Green Associates and those who need to complete their 15 or 30 hours of credential maintenance.

The next series "Energy Consumption & EA Credit 1: Top 10 Energy Efficiency Measures for Load Reduction" (Session 1) will begin on April 18 at the New England Tech - Room 216, 2480 Post Rd.

This three-part webinar series provides the strategies necessary to successfully achieve EA Credit 1 and energy efficiency through integrated design. This session will explore the first step for reducing energy consumption of a building: reducing energy loads. Presenters will highlight energy simulation as a design tool and key to successfully implementing EA Credit 1.

The facilitator is Kenneth Filarski, FAIA, AICP, LEED-AP BD+C, CFM

Cost for the event is $25 for anyone seeking CEUs; $25 for non-RIGBC members. Free for RIGBC members not seeking CEUs
