Pergola and Doherty join Cassidy Turley FHO to launch New England region capital markets group

April 26, 2012 - Front Section

According to Cassidy Turley FHO, David Pergola and Brian Doherty have joined the firm to launch its New England region capital markets group. As senior managing director, principal, Pergola will oversee all N.E. capital market transactions and will provide both investors and corporate users with capital markets services. Pergola will work closely with newly named senior vice president Doherty. Prior to joining Cassidy Turley FHO, both worked most recently at Cushman & Wakefield.

"David and Brian are two proven capital market leaders in the commercial real estate community and we could not be more excited to have them join our team," said Joe Fallon, managing principal at Cassidy Turley. "We look forward to utilizing their strengths as we launch our capital markets practice, we see this move as significantly enhancing our national capital markets platform, which is a key focus for us strategically."

"We are continuing to grow the geographic presence and capabilities of Cassidy Turley's capital markets business across the nation by attracting outstanding talent in key markets," said Noble Carpenter, executive managing director and leader of the national capital markets group at Cassidy Turley. "Cassidy Turley is already a leading Boston corporate advisory services and project leasing firm. The addition of Dave and Brian is a significant step forward in building our national capital markets platform."

Pergola formerly lead Cushman & Wakefield's middle markets investment sales for New England. Pergola has more than 20 years of a commercial brokerage experience and is a distinguished executive in the Boston commercial real estate industry, having transacted more than $10 billion in sales and leasing transactions nationwide.. A graduate of Boston College, Pergola is a veteran of the United States Marine Corps.

As a fellow Boston College graduate, Doherty served as a Director at Cushman & Wakefield for more than nine years. During that time, he worked closely with institutional and regional clients on office, industrial and mixed-use sales under the middle markets platform. Brian has transacted more than $2 billion in total sales and has represented some of the area's largest pension fund advisors and REITs. Before merging into the middle markets platform at Cushman & Wakefield, his focus was on institutional and private client multifamily sales.
