May 03, 2012 - Front Section

According to Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage, the real estate firm Harper, Ramos & Sheridan has joined the company's Barrington office, serving Barrington and the surrounding communities in the East Bay region of Rhode Island.

David Josephson, the broker owner, and Karen Ramos Chapman, one of the founding partners of Harper, Ramos & Sheridan, along with 8 sales associates, will join the Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage office located at 280 County Rd. in a sales capacity. The Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage office will continue to be managed by Wendy Wagenbach.

Established in 1990, Harper, Ramos & Sheridan has served homebuyers and sellers in Rhode Island's East Bay, as well as Providence, locations around the West Bay, and communities in southern Massachusetts.

"We are pleased to welcome David and his team of sales associates Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage. David is well respected and has built a reputation for providing the quality customer service that is essential in the real estate industry," said Pat Villani, president of Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage. "As part of Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage, David and the sales associates who have worked alongside him will have access to the latest technology and top-notch marketing and educational programs to better serve their clients in this competitive real estate environment."

In addition to Barrington, Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage has five other office locations in Rhode Island: Bristol, Cumberland, East Greenwich, Newport, Smithfield and Warwick.

"I chose to join Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage because it is an industry leader and together we are well positioned to provide exceptional service to homebuyers and sellers throughout Rhode Island," said Josephson.

Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage is one of the largest residential real estate brokerage companies in New England. With more than 4,000 sales associates and staff in approximately 90 office locations, the organization serves consumers in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Maine. Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage is part of NRT LLC, one of the nation's largest residential real estate brokerage companies.
