Doyker joins Connecticut Commercial Realty and Select Homes

May 17, 2012 - Connecticut

According to Connecticut Commercial Realty and Select Homes, Donna Doyker has joined the firm. Doyker has been active with real estate since 1993 and was previously associated with another local independent real estate firm.

The move to Connecticut Commercial Realty and Select Homes is a perfect fit for Doyker, who said, "Public service has always been an important part of my life choices from a grocery store manager and school bus driver to a toy store owner and municipal tax collector; my primary objective has been to help people with their everyday situations."

Her values and focus on service is a great match for this family-owned firm with an intentional service oriented philosophy.

Doyker encourages her past clients to find her at Connecticut Commercial Realty and Select Homes and welcomes new clients.

Connecticut Commercial Realty and Select Homes is a family-owned and operated company. The firm has brokerage in Conn., Mass. and R.I. and maintains two offices: one at 207 Bank St. in New London, Conn. and one at 612 Main St. in Somers, Conn. Through these offices, the firm offers residential and commercial real estate sales and leasing as well as certified appraisal, auction and management services.
