Cresa represents Triple Point Technology in 5,387 s/f lease

May 17, 2012 - Connecticut

Jeff Gage and Rich Opalenik of Cresa Fairfield County recently represented Triple Point Technology, Inc. in a 5,387 s/f lease expansion at 257 Riverside Ave. bringing their total occupied space in Westport to over 25,000 s/f.

Triple Point is a global provider of cloud and on-premise commodity management software that delivers advanced analytics to optimize end-to-end commodity and energy value chains. The company provides real-time solutions to address the complex and volatile commodities supply chain.

The owner of the property, Anchorage Ventures, LLC, was represented by Franco Fellah of the HK Group.
