Suffolk's education team to renovate Brown Univ. bookstore

February 08, 2008 - Rhode Island

Suffolk Construction's specialized education team was selected by Brown University to complete an extensive renovation of its 20,000 s/f campus bookstore building. The Brown Bookstore project is the education team's first project with Brown and represents an opportunity to build a long-term relationship with this client.

Bergmeyer is the project architect.

The project is scheduled for opening in August.

Suffolk's specialized education team is also currently partnering with Suffolk University, Harvard University and MIT on a variety of renovation and new construction projects.
