Two Bulfinch Cos.' buildings earn EPA's Energy Star label

May 24, 2012 - Green Buildings

Two of The Bulfinch Companies, Inc.'s properties, Derby Corporate Center and Needham Executive Center, have earned the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA's) Energy Star label.

Derby Corporate Center is a two-building office campus consisting of 99 and 101 Derby St., Hingham. 99 Derby St. is three stories, measuring 42,863 s/f and 101 Derby St. is two stories, measuring 19,930 s/f. Located off Rte. 3 via exit 15, Derby Corporate Center is across the street from the Derby Street Shoppes.

Needham Executive Center is a two-story, 45,312 s/f office building located at 144 Gould St., Needham and is accessible from Rte. 128 via exit 19B.

In keeping with its commitment to sustainability, Bulfinch buildings located at First Needham Place, Needham and Wells Business Center, Newton also earned the Energy Star label. Recent Bulfinch developments including the new Forrester World Headquarters at Cambridge Discovery Park, Cambridge and the Autodesk, Inc. offices at Trapelo Corporate Center, Waltham, were LEED Certified.

Created in 1992, Energy Star is a joint program of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the U.S. Department of Energy that helps to save money and protect the environment through energy efficient products and practices.

Bulfinch CEO, Eric Schlager, said "We are pleased that our buildings have once again been awarded the Energy Star designation, and we remain committed to protecting the environment through the use of sustainable and efficient energy practices throughout the Bulfinch portfolio."
