Linear Retail signs 2,500 s/f Wellesley Theatre Project

June 21, 2012 - Retail

According to Linear Retail Properties, LLC, Wellesley Theatre Project has signed a lease to join their Central Plaza shopping center located in downtown on Central St. The Massachusetts 501C3 non-profit corporation will occupy 2,500 s/f.

Wellesley Theatre Project is currently operating summer camps out of Wellesley Middle School and caters to youth, pre-K to twelfth grade. The non-profit is run by teaching artists, theatre professionals, experts in theatre operations and design and technical directors. Their current performances include Sleeping Beauty, Seussical the musical and Legally Blonde, the musical.

Hillary Drew, executive director and co-founder of Wellesley Theatre Project said, "We are thrilled to have our own space on Central Street in downtown Wellesley. This location is a big step forward for our program. We are thankful to have so much support from the Wellesley community."

Joel Kadis, partner of leasing at Linear Retail said, "Wellesley Theatre Project will provide an exciting new service to the community and fit in nicely with our existing retailers including Wellesley Books, GAP, Boloco, Alta Strada, Gretta Luxe, Citibank, Gustare Oils & Vinegars and Miniluxe. We're very fortunate to have Wellesley Theatre Project join us."
