Sullivan, Subber, Lowe and Leitner of Cresa represent ORT Law in 10,600 s/f; CBRE/NE acts for owner, Normandy Real Estate Partners

July 05, 2012 - Front Section

Dan Sullivan, Adam Subber, Rick Lowe, and Brandon Leitner of Cresa Boston recently represented ORT Patent Law, a local law firm specializing in intellectual property, in a 10,600 s/f class A office lease relocation at 321 Summer St. in the city's Seaport district.

The landlord, Normandy Real Estate Partners, was represented by Bill Crean of CBRE New England.

ORT, previously located at 10 Fawcett St. in Cambridge, relocated to the Seaport District to take advantage of the area's more favorable rents and innovative culture. According to Subber, this move is representative of an increasing trend, with many Cambridge companies considering relocation to Boston and the suburbs.

as a result of very tight vacancy and rising rental rates in East Cambridge.
