AGC Massachusetts hands out Safety Awards to 26 construction firms for outstanding safety records

July 05, 2012 - Owners Developers & Managers

On June 21st AGC handed out 26 construction firms awards for outstanding safety records at its Safety Awards breakfast.

The awards are based on a nationwide program sponsored by the National Safety Association and this year 1461 AGC-member contractors throughout the country participated. Over the past few years, standards have become increasingly stringent and these 26 firms are to be congratulated for their diligence in continuing to enhance their firms' safety practices.

AGC of Massachusetts is a professional construction association representing the majority of firms providing building construction services for commercial and institutional clients in the Commonwealth. The association offers valuable management education and safety training programs, on-going regulatory updates, legislative initiatives, construction industry trends and information through its publications and meeting agendas. Information on all our initiatives and programs may be found on our website at www.agcmass.org.
