Eaves joins the Boston office of Syska Hennessy as managing director

July 05, 2012 - Owners Developers & Managers

According to Syska Hennessy Group, Michael Eaves has joined the firm. Eaves joins as managing director and will oversee the entire operations and assume technical leadership for the location, and will look to continue to elevate it's client support and project delivery throughout this strategic region. The Boston office of Syska Hennessy Group has enjoyed long-term success in New England, consulting with some clients over a period of decades on projects around the world within every business sector. That commitment motivated the firm to continue to grow its presence in Boston.

Mr. Eaves has more than 25 years of design and construction experience both nationally and internationally before joining Syska Hennessey Group's Boston office. He has also served in a variety of capacities at many other high profile firms throughout his career in both Boston and New York City, including periods of employment at Grubb & Ellis, Badger Engineers Inc., Alfa Tech Cambridge Group, and Carlson.
