

nererj

Uhlenhake of Epstein Commercial Real Estate elected to Maine Real Estate & Development Association (MEREDA) board of directors

August 02, 2012 - Northern New England

Bev Uhlenhake of Epstein Commercial Real Estate has been elected to the board of directors of the Maine Real Estate & Development Association (MEREDA), a statewide organization of commercial real estate owners, developers and related service providers.

Uhlenhake works in all sectors of the commercial market and has brokered a range of sales, leases, and build to suits for local and national clients. She earned her CCIM in 2008 and currently sits on several boards, including the Brewer Planning Board. Before joining Epstein Commercial in 2004, Uhlenhake held management and executive positions in higher education and non-profit sectors. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Ohio State University and a Masters of Science in higher education administration from Iowa State University.

"Epstein Commercial Real Estate has been a longtime supporter of the Association and we are excited to be working with Bev", said Shelly Clark, business & operations manager of MEREDA. "Bev adds to the geographic diversity of the board which aids in our efforts to promote responsible development statewide".

New England Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540