Eckman Construction completes field house addition project at Franklin Pierce University

August 02, 2012 - Northern New England

Eckman Construction completed construction of an addition to the field house at Franklin Pierce University. The addition, comprising the Dr. Arthur and Martha Pappas Health Science and Athletic Training Center, totals 9,200 s/f on two floors and includes a classroom, lab, athletic training facilities, offices, and spaces for the rehabilitation needs of the intercollegiate sports program.

"The Pappas Center is everything we had hoped for, and will provide much-needed facilities for our health science and sports program," said university vice president Bruce Kirsh.
