"When our company decided to explore opportunities in the commercial property markets in Southern New Hampshire we interviewed several firms and chose Bob Morgan of Prudential Verani to act as our representative. His years of experience and expertise in property management, finance and negotiations were significant factors in our decision. Bob worked diligently to locate this investment property for us and assisted in negotiating the terms of purchase and closing. Continuing on as the leasing agent, and with one unit left, Bob has proven that his unique skills are crucial to the leasing process. I would recommend Bob to anyone looking for assistance in the purchasing, selling or leasing of commercial property." said Michael Greenberg of Simsbury Partners LLC.
