Hobbs Brook completes 30,000 s/f renovation and expansion at Four Points

February 20, 2008 - Retail

Four Points by Sheraton Norwood, has completed renovations and expansions to its hotel and conference center.

The renovation, which began in 2004, consisted of overhauling 30,000 s/f of meeting space and common areas and outfitting them with new communications equipment. The existing 119 guest rooms, hallways, and entrances have been upgraded to meet with the new design standards set by the brand. An additional wing consisting of 111 new guestrooms were also added as part of the expansion project.
