Redstone holds ribbon cutting for 144-unit Redstone Lofts at University of Vermont

September 06, 2012 - Owners Developers & Managers

Redstone recently held a ribbon cutting ceremony for the Redstone Lofts, an independent on-campus student apartment complex at the University of Vermont (UVM).

The project is located between the Redstone Campus and the Gutterson athletic facilities. The project, which houses UVM juniors, seniors, and graduate students, consists of one building with two connected four and five story wings housing 144 studio, one, two, three and four bedroom apartments. The building features a variety of amenities including study rooms, theatre/media center, fitness facility, game room, and outdoor gathering space. Redstone Lofts is anticipating receipt of LEED-Silver certification from the U.S. Green Building Council.

In the summer of 2010 UVM awarded Redstone with the opportunity to develop and manage the project on the UVM campus under a long-term ground lease. Construction began in April 2011 and was completed in July. UVM students began move-ins on August 1st.

The Redstone Lofts project team and contributors are: Youkel Architecture, DEW Construction Corp., Krebs and Lansing Consulting Engineers, Inc., H. Keith Wagner Partnership, Pearson & Associates Electrical and Mechanical Engineers, Hardy Structural Engineering, LLC, Murphy Sullivan Kronk, People's United Bank, and the University of Vermont.
