September 13, 2012 - Front Section

Fran Schofield, a top producing Realtor with 30 years of real estate industry experience, recently joined Robert Paul Properties as an agent in their lower cape office. With a particular focus on Orleans, Brewster, Chatham, Eastham, and Harwich, Schofield brings a discerning eye to matching buyers with just the right property and to marketing and selling primary residences, vacation homes and investment properties on Cape Cod.

"Fran's approach is so well-honed and so personable, she has such a high degree of integrity and professionalism, we are thrilled to have her joining Robert Paul Properties," said co-owner Paul Grover. "Her knowledge, energy, and high level of production are absolute and reflect characteristics we promote and encourage."

With exceptional experience, including site and project planning, commercial real estate development, architectural and landscape architectural design, and regulatory affairs, Schofield's approach to Cape Cod real estate sales and marketing is analytical, vigorous, and holistic.

The cornerstones of her practice are: Ethical conduct, strong market knowledge, inspired marketing, skillful negotiation, and unswerving dedication to representing the highest and best interests of her clients.

Lured like many by the Cape's natural beauty, reflective pace, and abundant lifestyle, Schofield lives on the lower cape with her husband Paul, sons Ben and Ross, and Golden Retriever Maxwell. She is a golfer, skier, reader, gardener, and boating enthusiast. Schofield also is involved in the civic and political life of her community.
