Beal of Perry Brokerage Associates arranges 8,412 s/f lease at 420 Boylston Street

September 20, 2012 - Front Section

According to Perry Brokerage Associates (PBA), The Boston Foundation recently signed a lease for 8,412 s/f of office space at the Berkeley at 420 Boylston St., bringing occupancy to 100%. Rich Beal of PBA represented the owner, A.W. Perry and Garrett Larivee and Dave Richardson of McCall & Almy represented The Boston Foundation.

The Boston Foundation with offices at 75 Arlington St. will be expanding its office operations to the Berkeley to accommodate growth and additional staff from its recent merger with The Philanthropic Initiative (TPI).

"We are very pleased to welcome The Boston Foundation to The Berkeley at 420 Boylston and to reestablish our relationship with the team from TPI who were former tenants of A.W. Perry at 77 Franklin St.," said Kerri Gallaway vice president and property manager of A.W. Perry.

"The Boston Foundation is delighted to be able to expand our operations in the Back Bay in a property that exemplifies the look and spirit of The Boston Foundation," said Beth Llewellyn, chief administrative officer of The Boston Foundation.
