Skanska USA breaks ground at Somerset Berkley Regional High: project team includes Agostini/Bacon Construction, PARE Corp. and Ai3 Architects

September 20, 2012 - Construction Design & Engineering

Executives from Skanska USA broke ground at the Somerset Berkley Regional High School, a 230,000 s/f project in accordance with the Mass. School Building Authority's Model School Program. The regional school district chose to base its design on the Whitman-Hanson Regional High School plan. Skanska will provide owner's project management services for the $82.8 million project, which is scheduled for completion in December 2015.

The architect is Ai3 Architects, the general contractor is Agostini/Bacon Construction, the civil engineer is PARE Corp., the MEP engineer is Griffith & Vary, Inc. and the structural engineers is Engineers Design Group.
