Winchester joins BL Companies' board of directors

September 20, 2012 - Connecticut

According to BL Companies, a multi-disciplinary architecture, engineering, environmental and land surveying firm providing services to public and private clients, Steve Winchester has joined its board of directors.

Winchester started his career with McDonnell Douglas and then joined Black & Veatch, a global engineering firm, where he served in various capacities for sixteen years ending as the regional manager of the Pacific Northwest Region's Water and Wastewater Business. He then moved to Psomas, one of the top-ranked engineering firms. In 2010, Steve formed his own firm, the Winchester Consulting Group LLC, to assist companies serving the water industry, including engineering, technology and venture capital firms.

Winchester joins current external board members, Steve Fisher and Waite Dalrymple as well as four internal board members: Mark Koellner, Jennifer Marks, Rainer Muhlbauer and Carolyn Stanworth.
